SUBJECT: Interview with Colonel Charles F. Bixel

TO: Heidelberg "KNOBEL"
ATTN: C

1. I and I had a long and cordial conversation with Colonel Bixel shortly after his return to this country, in general re-covering ground that you had already gone over with him, but in addition letting him know in more specific terms the nature and responsibilities of the KNOBEL organization.

2. For your information, Colonel Bixel was high in his praise of the manner in which you had conducted your relationship with him in the Theatre, and was most sympathetic to your program and understanding of your problems. I am sure that he must have briefed his successor quite favorably on the subject of your operation.
